

I believe that these rules represent additional steps toward a police state. The loss of American Citizens' very livelihood by what could even be a bureaucratic mistake, and the loss of our right to know who accuses us and the right to defend ourselves against wrongful accusation violates every tenent of one of our most important freedoms, that of "innocent until PROVEN guilty". There is no due process anywhere. This is wrong. It is not what the USA is about.