

Regarding the above listed docket, I believe this is a gross injustice to the rights of all free Americans. The point is this. This will not keep "unlicensed" individuals from doing what they wish, wether it be for pleasure or the purpose of terrorism. Also, if a person is affected by this ruling, there is not enough recourse available.