

This proposed action is incredibly scary. Those proposing it should be embarrassed. Many have died to build a country with a foundation of freedom and due process. This proposed action sacrifices both in the hope of security. I believe it was Ben Franklin that wrote "those who would sacrifice freedom for security will have neither" How true. Our freedoms were bought with the blood of our forefathers -- how dare we so lightly give them up.