

Oregon needs this exemption to keep our trucks with farm plates. Our farm truck accident record is excellent and there is no justification for federal truck inspectors to waste their scant resources on our farm trucks.