

Repeal this legislation immediately.

While no one can argue against anti terrorist measures, governmental actions which use terrorist activity as an excuse to erode citizens' rights to public trial and due process must be guarded against. This action proposes and implements little positive actions and contains great potential for abuse.

Repeal this legislation immediately.

Thank You

TR Proven