

This is to strongly protest the need for transponders in GA aircraft that require squawk codes operation other than are now in general use. The public interest would not receive any negligible benefit of increased safety from such requirements, and would be a hardship on the end user-owner.

Why don't you go for really tough fines and actions on those idiots who continue to wander into prohibited and restricted SUA...maybe bill them the cost of the intercept mission??