

YES! Let us move onward in securing the safest drivers get the privilege of hauling freight on America's highways. It is past time to improve the CDL program !! The Graduated CDL is the way to introduce needed enhancement in this area. It also keeps the federal standards progressing for Real-time national security. One note, the use of 'MVR' to indicate vehicle identity NOT people identity seems more logical internationally at this date.