

I think your regulation is long overdue. We need more cooperation among employers to determine the fitness of an individual for driving a commercial vehicle. I strongly urge you to put this into effect, and also consider how we can let you know of those who do not comply with our requests for that information.