

Please protect our National Parks from noise pollution. I noticed when hiking in Haleakala last month that even at the current limits the helicopter noise occasionally echoed through the crater. I cannot imagine how loud it would seem if they were actually flying over head or closer. The noise echo's and magnifies its in this serene setting.