

Please don't let helicopter overflights to national parks and shores fly lower and increase in frequency to unacceptable levels for man and beast alike. Spent time in Boston recently and even with the city noise, overflights were too loud and low. PLEASE limit them over parks and wilderness areas!!