

Helicopters flying low over our University neighborhood are unnerving to say the least. Accidents involving helicopters and neighborhoods would be a disaster for the community and the FAA. Please do not lower the minimum fly altitude from 500 to 300. Mahalo.