

The proposed rule does not appear to be justified. No definitive statistical analysis has been put forth to demonstrate the need for the rule. Most of the numbers cited were from 135 operations and not the part 91 operations. The adverse effect of causing approximately 700 businesses to close is unacceptable. The FAA should be trying to assist these businesses achieve a goal of zero accidents under current regulations, not close them down.