

Once again, the FAA is proving that promoting aviation is not in their plan. If this proposal is allowed to become a rule, it will take the jobs of thousands of Americans. This NPRM has no statistical merit and is driven by nothing scientific. It should be killed immediately in the interest of citizens and aviation.