

I am in support of the amendment to allow Flight Attendants to step into the jetway to access the phones. Since Flight Attendants are sometimes onboard the airplane without F/D crewmembers, the ability to call quickly for assistance for medical or other emergencies is hindered without this communication tool.