

I am in favor of allowing the flight attendant to step off of the aircraft to utilize the jetbridge phone. This is exemption will allow the crewmember to handle any onboard situation requiring the intervention of customer service, security or medical personnel in a much more expeditious manner than is currently available.