

AWA is in full support of this proposal because it allows for better communication between cabin crews and ground employees, which would positively impact the safety and security of the flight.