

Please consider the request to allow flight attendants to step off of the aircraft to use the jetbridge phone. This ability will facilitate increased response times to safety and security related issues, as well as, being a tool to provide better internal and external customer service.