

In reviewing this NPRM and some of the submitted comments, I request that this NPRM not be finalized. The data provided does not support the making the proposed changes. The negative economic and social impact far exceed any remotely possible benefits. This is a classic example of run away bureaucracy, ignoring facts to achieve self serving goals at the expense of the public and private enterprise.