

Stage IV standards must be enforced. The Santa Monica airport is a very high densely populated airport. Large aircraft spew excessive exhaust and polute the air for all residents. I am very concerned that large aircraft should not be allowed to land at the Santa Monica airport as the airport is not configured as such. An accident is just waiting to happen. Please uphold all of the Phase IV standards.