

Please do not create legistration which will interfere with Warbird operators from carying passengers for a donation. The ability of these organization to conduct rides is critical to their very existance. It is through these groups that our aviation history is kept alive. Seeing a plane in a museum is one thing, hearing it in flight is another. Donations rides are what make it happen. Safety is already paramount to our operation, therefore additional legistration is not required.