

As a private pilot, and commercial air travel pax, I completely agree with the proposed rule for random drug testing of certificated and non-certificated individuals who repair or rebuild aircraft or equipment to be used in aircraft. It seems there are more and more instances of unsatisfactory and dangerous work being done.