

i do think this gm problem with saab 9-3 sedans and convertibles is substantial. i think every problem reported to them should involve fixing the car, costs to be carried by g.m.. i think car mfrs need to be held to a very, very high standard. lives are at stake.