

I endorse the concept of utilizing the Gary-Chicago Regional Airport for relieving Ohare Airport congestion. The economic value to the area would be of great magnitude but also would air service to the residents in the southern corridor of Lake Michigan. The corridor encompasses a tri-state area and is in dire need of access.