

Paragraph (g) places an unwarranted operational burden on this organization, without any visible enhancement to safety. Why are spare or uninstalled engines required to be inspected prior to installation? They should be subject to the same criteria as installed engines, i.e. 9 months or the Compliance Schedule of Table 1, once they are installed in an aircraft.