

The exemption for the Honda PS250 should be granted. The regulation restricting the importation of scooters w/o foot brakes is obsolete. These vehicles are fuel efficient, inexpensive, environmentally sensitive. It is unconscionable unrestricted import and sales is not in place, in these days of rising fuel costs and dependence on mid-east oil.

Come on folks, get into the 21st century for Pete's sake.

Regards,
R.S. Adams
Northern, CA