

i feel we don't need another instrument on our trucks. there is a unit in place on all vehicles, of all sizes now. which if and when required can be accessed now. i am opposed to this next bill or law being introduced. and feel that more needs to be done on learning the general public on the uses of hiways for both truckers and four-wheelers