

I am totally opposed to your request for onboard recorders. The cost, administration and additional loss of freedom are not acceptable. Our industry is over regulated and our country cannot afford to lose any more productivity with more government intervention. This is not the American way!