

TSA-2004-19147 is completely unworkable. It will, in effect, close all flight training businesses in the US. The documentation required before flight training is horrendous under this proposed rule. Citizens will suffer just as much as non-citizens. In effect, you are closing all flight training facilities.