

re nhtsa 04 17571
fr doc 04-21735

i think penalty fees should be increased by one thousand per cent. it is clear that nhtsa is letting manufacturers get away with murder. if we find it, it means that thousands of other violations have gotten away with it. so it is serious and deseves serious penalties. small penalties result in manufacturers just doing the same illegal harmful action again.