

Omitting railcar ID on toxic material will pose a greater risk to the public and first responders than terrorist activity. The potential release and subsequent damage will be far greater during anticipated accidents than criminal activity.
CONTINUE PLACARDING!!!