

As a member of a fire department and regional HAZMAT team, I must protest one of the proposed changes this document identifies. Section 3, Part B suggests there is consideration of removing all identification markers of TIH products shipped by rail. While theoretically, this may hide that information from terrorists, it also does not make it available for emergency responders.