

importing gas guzzler cars right now is not what a patriotic government agency should be doing. if we all go to smaller cars that use less gas to get around, we would not need to drill more oil or to make the middle east so rich. it is time that NHTSA turns down importation of gas guzzlers.