

As part of your proposed rules for lighters and lighter refills, please make a rule stating that they must be made of a biodegradable plastic, and recycling programs for plastic disposable lighters. Americans throw away approximately 50 million plastic lighters a year, this is turning into a huge problem. Recycling programs would eliminate this, and the gas would not leak into groundwater and the air.