

Air Wisconsin Airlines has a primary maintenance base located at the ORD international airport. We have over 157 departures per day and we ferry many aircraft back to this base, Air Wisconsin feels that this proposed rule will make flight operations very difficult to maintain unless there is an exemption to rule for operators that have primary maintenance bases located at the airport. Prioritizing flights for non-scheduled aircraft is unfair for operators maintaining their aircraft.